Report of the School Board.

Every year brings its changes in our corps of teachers and as they have come to us in '99 we have, to the best of our ability, secured those to fill the vacancies whom we thought best adapted for the school in which they were placed ; those of a good moral character, and whom we were confident would exert a good influence in the community and school where they taught. This has been our aim and in the main has proved a success.

In a few instances where the teacher has not received the co-operation of parents, there has not been that progress which ought to have been, and which would, had the pupil been taught at home, "Order is heaven's first law." No school can attain a high standard unless good discipline is in that school.

As was suggested last year let us urge upon parents their duty—that of visiting the school where their children attend before criticising or condemning the teacher.

In looking over the School Registers we find but few of the parent's names among the visitors and not one, who has censured the teacher during the past school year. The instances of tardiness are too numerous. Parents are advised to attend to this that our town may compare favorably with others in the state in promptness.

We believe in a pleasant room for pupils—to us an attractive school-room is one of the essential points in securing a progressive school. Next to the home the school-room should be made as inviting as possible.

Teachers should always have a pleasant greeting for each pupil every morning and should aim to make the room attractive.

Allow no waste paper to be thrown upon the floor or in the school yard. Keep the room and yard tidy.

A truant officer having been appointed during the past year, we would advise the enforcement of its laws the coming year, that all children may be in school not in shoe shops during the months schools are in session.

Last year we recommended that vocal music be taught in our schools. Any thing which promotes harmony in our daily lives is valuable, and music, being an agency of this nature must help in school work.

During the past year repairs have been made at the mountain, Center and Blake's Hill.

This year finds us with money in the treasurer's hands, which the discontinuance of the Narrows Primary occasioned by measles, and the closing of Center school two weeks earlier than other schools, that the teacher might accept the position as Principal of a high school, will explain.

Dated at Northwood this twentieth day of Feb. 1900.

The Albion Knowlton Library is an independent library, not under our control except as regards the keeping and loaning of the town's books. It extends the hospitality of its shelves and the services of its librarian free to one half of the towns books, keeping and loaning them according to the town's regulations, and also adopting the town's regulations for the loaning of its own books. The town's cards are used in drawing from both libraries. Any holder of a card, who desires it, may receive a second card bearing the same numbers as the first with the letter K annexed. This second card can be used in drawing from the Albion Knowlton Library only.

In general books with odd numbers are at the Center and books with even numbers are at the Ridge; but C after an even number shows that the book is at the Center, and R after an odd number shows that it is at the Ridge.
